

Do YOU need the #JUST ADULTING app?

Are you 18 or older?

NO, BUT I WILL BE SOON!

YES, I'M A NEW ADULT!

Do you even know how to adult?

I HAVE NO IDEA WHAT I'M DOING.

I THINK SO.

You need to be better prepared to adult.

OKAY, HOW?

Learn about adulting things like living on your own, leasing an apartment, building credit, paying taxes and more.

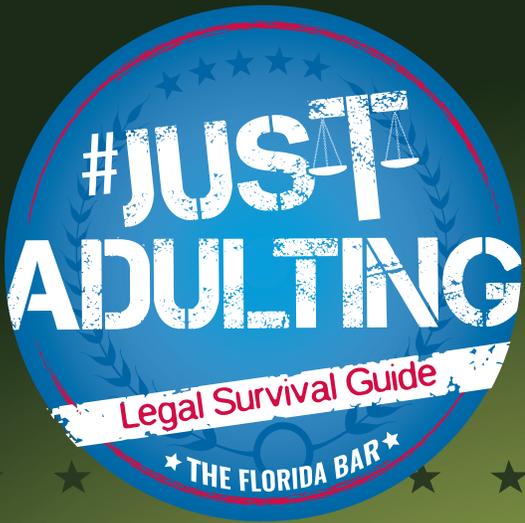

WHY?

Once you're 18, you will be confronted with new rights, responsibilities and regulations that will impact your life. If you are unaware of or don't follow these adult obligations, bad things can happen to you.

Where can I find the information I need to know?

Go to JustAdulting.com and download the #JustAdulting app for FREE!
Use and share this legal survival guide with your peers to be better prepared for life as an adult.

Legal Survival Guide for New Adults

By The Florida Bar

Law Related Education Committee

Once you turn 18 years old, you are legally considered an adult in this country. But what does that actually mean? From the right to cast your vote in the next election to entering into a lease for your first apartment to serving on a jury, you are about to enter a new and exciting world of rights, responsibilities and obligations. In order to be prepared to “adult,” it is essential that you understand how the law will impact your daily life.

The Florida Bar’s #JustAdulting Legal Survival Guide will provide you with the information you need to become knowledgeable on legal guidelines affecting those 18 and older. The guide covers a variety of topics such as: consumer protection, the court system, credit, criminal charges, drinking laws, employment, federal income tax, marriage, landlord-tenant issues, voting and more.

The #JustAdulting Legal Survival Guide is a great first step toward understanding how critical the law is in your adult life. It is available for free through a mobile Web app. It can be obtained by visiting www.JustAdulting.com on a mobile device and following the download instructions.